Oz Rock to rock Jupiters Theatre

Iconic Australian rock stars will deliver a night of classic hits and unrelenting, adrenaline-charged performances when the Oz Rock Roadshow arrives at Jupiters Theatre on Saturday March 19, 2016.

The night promises to have people up on their feet singing out loud to some of Australia's biggest and best hits with the impressive line-up featuring household names such as Choirboys, Rose Tattoo, Stars, Ted Mulry Gang, The Angels, Billy Thorpe Band and Matt Finish.

The legendary artists have released more than 100 albums and dozens of hit songs that defined local culture, from the underground to the mainstream, since the seventies and underscored the lives of generations of Australians.

When it comes to recognisable voices in the Australian music industry it doesn't get any better than this. The line-up of incredible Australian talent set to rock the stage at Jupiters Theatre will include Mark Gable (Choirboys), Angry Anderson (Rose Tadoo), Mick Pealing (Stars), Steve Mulry (TMG, Black Label), Bob Spencer (The Angels, Skyhooks), Dai Pritchard (Billy Thorpe, Rose Tadoo), Ric Herbert (King Kong, Underbelly 2, X Factor), Justin Bianchi (Doc Neeson Band) and John Prior (Matt Finish).

The music is loud and unapologetic and the high-energy performances on the night will include classic anthems like Run To Paradise, We Can't Be Beaten, Mighty Rock, Jump In My Car, No Secrets, Talk Big, Bad Boy For Love, Quick On The Draw, Jamaica Rum, Most People I Know, Boys Will Be Boys, Rock 'n Roll Outlaw, Back Again, Darktown Strutters Ball, Am I Ever Gonna See Your Face Again and so many more.

Oz Rock Roadshow is an unmissable event that will take the audience back in time to reminisce and celebrate the soundtrack of an entire generation. Tickets are on sale now.
