

THE STAR

Media Release

24 January 2022

LIVE FROM THE US: THE STAR SYDNEY CEMENTS ITSELF AS THE HOME OF THE SUPER BOWL IN SYDNEY

Hut! Hut! Hut! With the endzone of this year's NFL season officially in sight, The Star Sydney is announcing its line-up of celebrations for this year's Super Bowl LVI on Monday 14 February, with both the 24/7 Sports Bar and Rock Lily offering Aussie sports fans the ultimate party atmosphere.

Boasting a massive 34m² LED mega screen and a state-of-the-art surround sound system worthy of broadcasting one of the sporting world's biggest and most prestigious events, 24/7 Sports Bar will be serving up front row views of all the action at Los Angeles' SoFi Stadium direct to Sydney with a non-stop line-up of roaming cheerleaders, live entertainment and drinks specials from Jack Daniel's or Brooklyn Lager.

To keep viewers fuelled up throughout the game, 24/7 Sports Bar will also be bringing back its annual Hot Dog eating competition and offering a delicious menu of US. classics like smoked spareribs with BBQ Buffalo sauce, Jalapeno & Brisket Nachos and mini Philly cheesesteaks with caramelised onions.

The action doesn't stop there, with Rock Lily upping the ante with an intimate VIP viewing experience unlike any other. For $180 per person for groups of up to eight people, Rock Lily will be offering a four-hour table service package complete with beer, wine and spirits and an indulgent selection of classic field-side snacks. Think: Pulled Beef Brisket Slides with Smokey BBQ Sauce, Chicken Wings with Ranch Dressing, and Corn Chips with Chilli Con Carne and Jalapeno Cheese.

For the die-hard NFL fans looking to get the party started and secure seats early, The Star Grand will also be offering 20% off stays the night before the big game on Sunday 13th February. Guests will simply need to enter the code SUPERBOWL when booking online.

For more information and to book your space to cheer the AFC and NFC champions to victory, please visit:

<https://www.star.com.au/sydney/NFL-2022>

For more information, please contact:

Siobhan Veddovi-McCaughan, Account Director, Example
siobhan@example.com.au | 0419 671 471