

JADE RABBIT

*Many years ago, an elderly traveller was walking through the woods, where he met
Fox, Monkey, Otter, and Rabbit whom he begged for food.
Fox stole a lizard and a pot of milk curds.
Monkey climbed a tree and brought him some fruit.
Otter gathered fish from a stream.
Rabbit though, could only gather grass.
Knowing well enough that grass can't be offered as food to humans,
Rabbit asked the man to build a fire,
After the fire was started, Rabbit jumped in,
Sacrificing himself, so that the man could eat.
At once the traveller threw off his cloak,
Revealing himself to be the revered Jade Emperor,
Pulling Rabbit from the fire and deeply touched by his sacrifice,
The Jade Emperor said, "You are most generous Rabbit, but please do yourself no harm, for your kindness I will grant you an eternal life on the moon."
And so, the emperor carried Rabbit in his arms, to leave in peace and plenty.
Thus, the legend of the Jade Rabbit was born, a generous guardian,
Watching over our nights.*
