

Online Application Form Submissions

Acceptable forms of ID

These 5 forms of ID are acceptable:

1. an Australian government issued photo ID card
2. an Australian driver licence or learner permit, including a digital licence
3. a foreign driver licence
4. a passport from any country
5. a recognised proof-of-age card.

The ID document must be current and include a photo of the person and their date of birth.

Foreign driver licences that aren't in English

Where a foreign driver licence isn't in English, the person should also present an international driver permit issued in their country of origin, which is in English and includes a photo of the licence holder.

